FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws with respect to Nikola Corporation (the "Company"), including statements relating to: the Company's future financial outlook and future business performance, business plan, focus, strategy and mission; expected future wholesale truck deliveries; expected timing of completion of production, deliveries and other milestones; expectations regarding the Company's hydrogen refueling solutions and timeline; expected timing related to returning BEVs to customers; expansion plans for the hydrogen highway; expectations regarding sufficiency of cash, cash use and capital needs; potential benefits of planned and actual collaborations with strategic partners; government incentives including CARB credits and expectations regarding related revenue; and expectations regarding inclusion in and funding for EPA clean ports program and clean hydrogen hubs. Forward-looking statements generally are identified by words such as "believe," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "intend," "strategy," "future," "opportunity," "plan," "may," "should," "will," "would," and similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not historical fact. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially and reported results should not be considered as an indication of future performance. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: design and manufacturing changes and delays, including global shortages in parts and materials and other supply challenges; general economic, financial, legal, regulatory, political and business conditions and changes in domestic and foreign markets; the impact of inflation and other factors on demand for our trucks; the outcome of legal, regulatory and judicial proceedings to which the Company is, or may become a party; demand for and customer acceptance of the Company's trucks and hydrogen fueling solutions; risks associated with development and testing of fuel-cell power modules and hydrogen storage systems; risks related to the recall, including higher than expected costs, the discovery of additional problems, delays retrofitting the trucks and delivering such trucks to customers, supply chain and other issues that may create additional delays, order cancellations as a result of the recall, litigation, complaints and/or product liability claims, and reputational harm; risks related to the rollout of the Company's business and milestones and the timing of expected business milestones; the effects of competition on the Company's business; the Company's capital needs, ability to raise capital and maintain sufficient capital to run its business; the execution and terms of definitive agreements with strategic partners and customers; the failure to convert LOIs or MOUs into binding orders; the cancellation of orders; the Company's ability to achieve cost reductions and decrease its cash usage; the grant, receipt and continued availability of federal and state incentives; inclusion in the EPA clean ports program and clean hydrogen hubs; and the factors, risks and uncertainties regarding the Company's business described in the "Risk Factors" section of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the guarter ended March 31, 2024, filed with the SEC, in addition to the Company's subsequent filings with the SEC. If these or other risks or uncertainties materialize, or assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof, and the Company disclaims any obligation to update these forward-looking statements...

USE OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

To supplement our financial statements prepared in accordance generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP), we are providing certain non-GAAP measures, including EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, non-GAAP net loss, non-GAAP net loss per share basic and diluted, and adjusted free cash flow, all of which are non-GAAP financial measures and are presented as supplemental measures of the Company's performance. Non-GAAP net loss is defined as net loss adjusted for stock-based compensation expense and certain other items the Company believes are not indicative of its core operating performance. Non-GAAP net loss per share basic and diluted is defined as Non-GAAP net loss divided by weighted average basic and diluted shares outstanding. The Company defines adjusted EBITDA as earnings before interest expense, taxes, depreciation and amortization and certain other expense items the Company believes are not indicative of its core operating performance. Adjusted free cash flow is defined as net cash used for operating activities plus purchases of property, plant and equipment. These non-GAAP measures are not substitutes for or superior to measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to any other performance measures derived in accordance with GAAP.

The Company believes that presenting these non-GAAP measures provides useful supplemental information to investors about the Company in understanding and evaluating its operating results, enhancing the overall understanding of its past performance and future prospects, and allowing for greater transparency with respect to key financial metrics used by its management in financial and operational-decision making. However, there are limitations related to the use of non-GAAP measures and their nearest GAAP equivalents. For example, other companies may calculate non-GAAP measures differently, or may use other measures to calculate their financial performance, and therefore any non-GAAP measures the Company uses may not be directly comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

N KEY MESSAGES

As a first mover in the hydrogen economy, Nikola is bringing together a purpose-driven coalition to build out the hydrogen ecosystem: dealers, fleet customers, suppliers, and strategic partners

- 1 We are doing what we said we would do
 - Wholesaled 72 hydrogen fuel cell electric trucks (FCEVs), exceeding the high-end of the guidance range
 - Delivered HYLA fueling solutions to support volume ramp
- We are creating and monetizing alternative revenue and profit streams
 - Realized regulatory credit revenue from the sale of NOx and PM credits

- We are demonstrating national account interest
 - Walmart Canada, the first retailer to deploy a Nikola Class 8 FCEV in North America
 - Received repeat orders from two national accounts
 - We are in the unique position to attract prospective partners
 - Like-minded partners like automotive OEMs, hydrogen producers, Big Energy -who recognize Nikola as the first mover in the hydrogen economy

¬ PROFITABILITY FLYWHEEL

TINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

	Q2 2024 vs. Q1 2024
	Revenue grew 318% to $31.3M, the highest revenue quarter in the history of Nikola. Revenue growth was impacted by:
REVENUE	+ Higher wholesale deliveries of 72 FCEVs, up 80% from 40 + Stronger ASP of $388k, up 2% from $381k + Service & Other of $2.5M, up from $79K
PROFITABILITY	Total gross loss decreased in Q2 to ($54.7M) from ($57.6M). Gross loss improvement was primarily impacted by:
	+ Stronger revenue driven by higher ASP and sale of regulatory credits - Increased costs related to higher deliveries and hydrogen dispensing
	Quarter-end unrestricted cash & cash equivalents decreased sequentially by ($89.3M). Cash balance was primarily impacted by:
CASH	+ Higher volume + ATM proceeds of $52.2M - One additional payroll period - Larger disbursements to suppliers as we scale production

₹Q3 OUTLOOK

VOLUME	 Wholesale deliveries of 80-100 FCEVs in Q3 2024 Wholesale deliveries of 300-350 FCEVs in FY 2024
PROFITABILITY	We are focused on executing our plan to get more Nikola trucks on the road while providing adequate infrastructure for customers to operate their fleets. Our continued focus area of achieving material volume including national accounts is expected to enable cost optimization while we scale over time.
CASH	We intend to maintain sufficient cash to support our business needs.
